been trying to show you over and over look at these,
my child-bearing hips look at these, my ruby-red ruby lips look at these, my work strong-arms you've got to see my bottle full of charm lay it all at your feet you turn around and say back to me he said
sheela-na-gig, you exhibitionist better wash that man right out of my hair

-"just like the first time, said you didn't care"
-"heard it before, no more"
-"turn the corner, another one there "
-"heard it before"

put money in your idle hole he said "wash your breasts, i don't want to be unclean" he said
"please take those dirty pillows away from me"
