In your eyes i see the glow of Love
And your lips i'd take your smile
You should know this by now cause your a star just waiting to shine

All you've got to do is smile,
All you've got to do is shine,

I want you i feel you, i cant escape your smile
I want to get close to, your smile makes you a star

You dont know that when im with you,
You just take my breath away,
You weaken me down on my knees,
You make me shiver everytime you smile

There's nothing in this world you couldn't do,
There's so much in the stuff in store for you

I want you i feel you, i cant escape your smile
I want to get close to, your smile makes you a star

I want you i feel you, i cant escape your smile
I want to get close to, your smile makes you a star

I want you i feel you, i cant escape your smile
I want to get close to, your smile makes you a star
