It's so often hidden inside of you
And so you never really notice;
When it comes out to you don't be afraid
And try to fully understand it.

That day will point out something really new
And you won't be able to leave it,
Beginning of some gorgeous days and nights,
Nothing will fasten you away.
Escape will no longer be a solution,
And you will melt in it,
Living on the bright side is what you aimed at,
So you surely deserve it.

Look inside again, then open your eyes,
It can be so useless but when you've got it you can
Fly so far away, be one with your thoughts,
Feel it all the time.

I never thought it could happen to me
And now I'm totally astonished,
Looking back to those days I was waiting,
Thinking about my destiny;
Today everything has moved on
To a better way, happiness.
Don't be the rest and take your life in hands,
Live for a while in selfishness.

Look inside again, then open your mind,
It can be so helpful and when you've got it you can,
Dream so far away, be one with your half,
Feel it all the time.

Look inside again, then open your eyes,
It can be so useless but when you've got it you can
Fly so far away, be one with your thoughts,
Feel it all the time.
