Wake up.

Hey, hey, watch for your steps,

There's nowhere safe for you to hide away

'Cause no one will be there when you'll fall down.

Hey, hey, clean up that mess,

There's nowhere safe for you to fly away

'Cause no one will be there to help you.

Free yourself from those chains,

This time there's nothing left

'Cause it will be too late.

We're gonna die, we're gonna die.

Awakeness is a non sense

If conscience fades away.

There will be no chance.

We're gonna die, we're gonna die.

Hey, hey, wake up today,

There's nowhere safe for you to breathe away

'Cause everyone will think you are insane.

Hey, hey, no need to pray,

There's nowhere safe for you to run away

'Cause everyone will feel you blame them.

Free yourself from those chains,

This time there's nothing left

'Cause it will be too late.

We're gonna die, we're gonna die.

Awakeness is a non sense

If conscience fades away.

There will be no chance.

We're gonna die, we're gonna die.
