Hey pretty lady
Why are you looking so grey?
Why are you worried about tomorrow
If livings for today
Time flies, keeps passing you by
They see you going under
And they all wonder why
Oh, why
Can you hear the voices sayin?

It's alright, it's alright

(Chorus)
And this is our generation
And it'll be your time
In this situation
You better hold on tight
Break the foundation
You gotta live your life
In this generation

Hey pretty babay
Why the look in your eyes?
You're gonna make it in this lifetime
Daddy make it alright
Sun shines, keep your head up towards the light
Release, the soul is burning
So you can learn to fly
So, fly
It's only yours if you take it

It's alright, it's alright

(Chorus)
And this is our generation
And it'll be your time
In this situation
You better hold on tight
Break the foundation
You gotta live your life
In this generation

And it'll be your life
And it's alright
And it'll be your time (In this generation)
You better hold on tight (In this generation)
You gotta live your life (In this generation)
And it'll be alright (In this generation)
And it'll be your time (In this situation)
You gotta hold on tight (Break the foundation)
You gotta live your life (In this generation)
You gotta live your life
