I can still see the light
at the end of the tunnel shine through the dark times even when I lose my mind

But it feels like no one in the world is listening and I can't ever seem to make the right decisions

I walk around in the same haze
I'm still caught in my same ways I'm losing time in these strange days but somehow I always know the right things to say

I don't know what time it is or whose the one to blame for this Do what I believe what I can't see
And how do you know
which way the wind blows

Cause I can feel it all around
I'm lost between the sound
And just when I think I know, there she goes

[Chorus]
Goodbye for now
Goodbye for now
So long

Goodbye for now (I'm not the type to say I told you so)
Goodbye for now
So long (I think the hardest part of holding on is lettin go)

When will we sing
A new song
A new song

We're still smilin as the day goes by and how come nobody ever knows the reasons why Burry you deep so far you can't see

If you're like me who wears a broken heart on your sleeve

Pains is troubles that you know so well Either time don't
It can't or you just won't tell

I'm not the type to say I told you so I think the hardest part of holding on is lettin it go

And just when I think I know there she goes

Goodbye for now
Goodbye for now
So long

Goodbye for now (I'm not the type to say I told you so)
Goodbye for now
So long (I think the hardest part of holdin on is lettin it go)

[Repeat]

When will we sing
A new song

And you can sing until
And I can scream until the world goes deaf (goes deaf)

For every other word

left unsaid you should have took the time to read the sign and see what it meant

In some ways everybody feels alone so if the burden is mine then I can carry my own

If joy really comes in the morning time
then I'm gunna sit back and wait until the next sun rise

Goodbye for now
Goodbye for now
So long

Goodbye for now (I'm no the type to say I told you so)
Goodbye for now

[Repeat 2x]
When will we sing
A new song
