Breathe

This is the knowledge that I bring,

Universal worldwide culture

Inhale, exhale

I takes it all in

No second guessing

Truth brings forth a new passion

No second guessing

Push aside this fate for the ransom

Stands among, gold seven and lox'd up

White wool; fire eyes, glowing in red

Water of rush, planet hold, in double edge

Falling down dead, last first, it's one life

Life source, in resurrection, these bloodstains

Shining face, this morning stars reflections

Embracing light, the clearness of sunrise

Tower strong, in this refuge, my fortress

Breathe

This is the knowledge that I bring,

Universal worldwide culture

Inhale, exhale

I takes it all in

No second guessing

Truth brings froth a new passion

No second guessing

Push aside this fate for the ransom
