This little one tries as hard as she can
Do anything just so she could fit in
She wants a friend so bad
She'll do whatever they tell her

To make them smile she would misbehave
But all the while they would laugh at her face
She begins to cry
Because she thought that they liked her

Even though you feel all alone
It can't rain everyday, it don't rain forever
Your sunshine maybe gone I know
It can't rain everyday, it don't rain forever

He works hard everyday of his life
For his son on the way and his beautiful wife
But today he got a call from his job
They got something to tell him

They laid him off now he's out on the streets
He's got to do what it takes so his family can eat
Can't even look at his wife
'Cause he feels like he failed them

Even though you feel all alone
It can't rain everyday, it don't rain forever
Your sunshine maybe gone but I know
It can't rain everyday, it don't rain forever

It don't rain, it don't rain forever
It can't rain, it don't rain forever

Rain down, rain down, rain down
So let it rain down, rain down, rain down
Rain down on me now

A young lady's been lost for awhile
But that's okay now she's having a child
She finally got what she wants
She's got someone who loves her

But this morning she woke up in pain
Nobody had to tell her 'cause she knew right away
So she started to cry
Because she won't be a mother

Even though you feel all alone
It can't rain everyday, it don't rain forever
Your sunshine maybe gone but I know
It can't rain everyday, it don't rain forever

It don't rain, it don't rain forever
It can't rain, it don't rain forever

Rain down, rain down, rain down
Rain down on me
Rain down, rain down, rain down
