Time goes by, and God knows I try, to carry on with a life
Decide not to hide feelings inside
Even though they hurt sometimes
I forget to remember you
Its easy to, lock away these pains, don't wana relive it through
But I stay strong, you thought me how to move on in this world
I married my sweetheart, even got a little baby girl
I wish you could see her, I swear she looks just like you If you can here me, show me a sign; please send a butterfly or two

I'm thinkin' about forever, (backdrop voices) I'm thinkin'
about forever
Missin you.
I know your so much better (backdrop voices) I know
your so much better.
You made it through!

Now I know what it means to live for someone else
To give up yourself
Things have changed; in times your kinda strange;
your love remains the same

Do I make you proud? Mama can you see me now?
What evers good in me, its cause you showed me how To take love by the hand, and so now I can share you with my baby so, That she can understand

I'm thinkin' about forever, (backdrop voices) I'm thinkin'
about forever
Missin you.
I know your so much better (backdrop voices) I know
your so much better.
You made it through!

I'm thinkin' about forever, (backdrop voices) I'm thinkin'
about forever

Missin you.

your so much better.
You made it through!
I'm thinkin' about forever, (backdrop voices) I'm thinkin'
