Rhythmically moving, emotions are rising
Quivering to music, trembling bodies in song
Go unsteadily sliding, devious gliding
So beautifully sailing and floating on

Life's real when angels and serpents dance
Life's real when angels and serpents dance

Twistedly slipping, radiant soaring
Winding maliciously, creeping, flowing Righteous, moral and just, deceitful the creature is crawling
The guardian's flying, the dance is breathing, who's leading?

Life's real when angels and serpents dance
Life's real when angels and serpents dance
Life's real when angels and serpents dance
Life's real when angels and serpents dance

Who's leading, leading you?
Everything you say, everything that you do
Believing what is true
One must lead in the dance, who's leading you?

Life's real when angels and serpents dance

Life's real when angels and serpents dance

Who's leading, leading you?
Everything you say, everything that you do
Believing what is true
One must lead in the dance, who's leading you?
