Chorus:

I believe that this world believes in love (x 2)

We might never really agree
On anything about the lives we live
Between you and me. So differently.

We don't always see things the same
We should agree to disagree
If we meet at love we can work it out

chorus:

I believe you and I will overcome
I believe you and I believe in love

Whether you think I'm so confused
Or if you feel the way I do So don't give in to this hate within

Living in this world of pain
Don't let it bring you down
The world is a ghetto

chorus:

I believe that this world believes in love
I believe you and I believe in love
