"Search For Truth"

I denied the truth that was written in my heart
I demanded proof before my faith could really start
Religion has it's weaknesses when it's runned by man
And man isn't perfect that took a while to understand
People places and things are easily accused
For weak decisions consciously or subconsciously choosed
I ask myself each day what are the right things to do
There's so much information that's untrue
I'm on my search
For truth
Cause I urge for you
I'm on my search for truth
On my search for you
I'm on my search
For truth
Cause I urge for you
I'm on my search
For truth
On my search for you
I find you can be nothing if it's nothing you believe in
And the consequences of half truths are deceiving I'm in the learning process of loving my neighbor as myself
In a state of the art
I come to knowledge of my inner wealth
Lies and sin interfere with my intelligence
And will
And my faith gets tested every time my body
Falls ill
By following nature's laws that have been there from the start
I strive to pridelessness in the heart
I'm on my search for truth...
I denied the truth that was written in my heart
It took me a few crucial wacks before I could really start
Searching for the meaning and my mission in this life Which brought me back to dreams of children with my future wife
Travelling miles to find old values in this present day
It's hard to stay on track when temptation doesn't stay away

"do to others as you would have them Do to you"
That's my motto I hope you have one too
I'm on my search
For truth...
I'm on my search for truth...
Search for truth
Urge for you
Search for truth, I'm on my search for you
