She cries herself to sleep but the tears won't go away
The best I can do is watch
Better hope for a brighter day
She whispers in the dark about feelings long before
Said she's tried so hard but now she can't hold on

So go on, try and forget me
I know this won't last for long
So come on and wreck me
Said 'something's don't belong'

She whispers with the wind about lovers long before
Shouldn't have grown so fast
It's a shame how no one knows
How you swallowed down your pride
Hoping it might come back someday
But for now we'll just hold onto every moment
Everyday

So go on, try and forget me
I know this won't last for long
So come on and wreck me
Said I can't believe it, but I'm

S o r r y , it's over
S o r r y , I'm tired
S o r r y , we're over
S o r r y , it's colder in here'

S o r r y , it's over
S o r r y , but I'm so tired
S o r r y , we're older now
I keep sayin' I'm sorry but I'm so tired in here

She cries herself to sleep
