You're no mistake
You don't deserve this
It took every bit of beauty you had

Right down to the heart
Right down thru the surface
See you opened your life
And that's a life I can't bare to lose

Take back your freedom
Take back every little thing that you used to Luck don't seem to wanna come around
You kick open that door

We're gonna get by
We'll make it through this
No matter how hard we must fight
There's no need for goodbyes now
It'll never own you
You tucked your soul away
And that's not where it's gonna be no more

I can't push you any harder than I'm trying
It's up to you
But I can see the moon in your eyes, you're tired
Time to move yourself

Sit back you're free now
It just took every little ounce of strength that you had
But I swear that you sang
