Listen my new friend, please and have a sympathetic tender ear I was born in this junkyard and it was the prettiest little thing to me vanity! deface me!

Here's the part in the song
Where you think of me all wrong And here's the part where I choose that I got nothing left to lose 'cause any pain that you can bring to me is nothing comparatively And I've been so lost and found I can't smile, I can't frown

Happy song, nothing's wrong
It's all fun, I'm all numb

How much can one man stand before he kisses a cold dead street?
This cross bares a billion lost souls
Three times do I fall to my bloody bare feet?

Think again my lovely friend
Don't ask for more you dirty whore

Here's the part in the song
where you tell me you don't care I made you in my head and you don't even care
Happy song, nothing's wrong
It's all fun but I'm all numb
This is fun but now I'm done
