Summer nights with the speakers up,
Another chance to fall in love,
I should've known it wouldn't last forever,
Another chance to make it better.
Well I miss staying out till the a.m.
Hanging out with best friends,
Doing all that we can, gotta feel alive,
I need just one more night.

So meet me at the rooftop, woo oh!
We'll sing our anthem, the anthem of the summer
Woo oh! We'll sing it loud for the whole world to hear it.
Woo oh! We'll sing our anthem, the anthem of the summer
Woo oh! We'll sing it loud for the whole world to hear it.

We've missed the train or we drink
Till I passed out on your floor,
Oh yeah those were the days we'll remember,
remember forever (forever)
I guess they're right you don't know what you got till it's gone.
(Talking about it, but space in the store)
It didn't seem a lot back then.
Do you remember way back when...

Just meet me at the rooftop, woo oh!
We'll sing our anthem, the anthem of the summer
Woo oh! We'll sing it loud for the whole world to hear it.
Woo oh! We'll sing our anthem, the anthem of the summer and
Woo oh! We'll sing it loud for the whole world to hear it.

The light that burns the brightest, is the light that burns
the longest.
Give us a match to get this going,
keep 'em in the dark without them knowing that,
The light that burns the brightest, is the light that burns
the longest.
Give us a match to get this going,
keep 'em in the dark without them knowing that,

The light that burns the brightest is the light that burns
the longest!

Give us a match to get this going,
keep 'em in the dark without them knowing that,
The light that burns the brightest is the light that burns
the longest!

Just give us a match to get this going,
keep 'em in the dark without them knowing...

Woo oh! We'll sing our anthem, the anthem of the summer

Woo oh! We'll sing it loud for the whole world to hear it!

Woo oh! We'll sing our anthem, the anthem of the summer and woo oh!

Woo oh! Woo oh.
