Music and lyric by Daniel Gildenlöw

Spring came with awakening, came with innocence and joy

Spring came with fascination and desire to deploy

Summer came with restlessness and curiosity

Summer came with longing for the things we could not be

Take me to the forest, take me to the trees

Take me anywhere as long as you take me

Take me to the ocean, take me to the sea

Take me to the Breathe and BE

Autumn came with knowledge, came with ego came with pride

Autumn came with shamefulness for the things we could not hide

Winter came with anger and a bitter taste of fate

Winter came with fear for the things we could not escape

Take me to the forest, take me to the trees

Take me anywhere as long as you take me

Take me to the ocean, take me to the sea

Take me to the Breathe and BE

Teach me of the forest, teach me of the trees

Teach me anything as long as you teach me

Teach me of the ocean, teach me of the sea

Teach me of the Breathe and BE

See me! I am the one creation

Hear me! I am all the love that came from Animae

Know me! I am the incarnation

Fear me! I am all the power held by Animae

Me!

Give me of the forest, give me of the trees

Give me anything as long as it's for me

Give me of the ocean, give me of the sea
Give me of the Breathe and BE

Give me all the forests, give me all the trees
Give me everything as long as it's for free
Give me all the oceans, give me all the seas
Give me all the breathing BE
