

Paint It Black "Anesthesia"

The blind eye of the TV screen keeps us anesthetized.
Freedom decreased while we fucking sleep.
That's the plan that they devised.
This song's designed with you in mind, to cut you down to size.
And through the night, yeah the flame burns bright,
and we'll burn right through your lies.
Out cold, you're bought & sold.
So just stand in line and do what you're told.
No conflict?
No strife?
You better run for your fucking life...
The truth is so elusive, because the bullshit's subsidized.
Deceit increased while the fucking Beast gnaws at our insides.
