Ready? Dancing on the road
Running through a step path

People are flying in the sky
A broad expanse of sky turns deep blue

We will manage to find out
It's getting dark
In a little while
The night breeze will cover the city

Find out something
Adapt yourself to the unknown place
Sing a crying song
Drink happily everyday

Go ahead furthermore
Fascinated by the smell of the seasons
Sing a sad song
Acid head, eat some more

Crying song
Sad song

Ready? Dancing on the road
Flowers are magnificent bloom
Enough to disturb the harmony

People are flying in the sky
Twinkling stars over the mountain
Let's get them together

Though it's a tough day
You'll get power, solar
In a little while
The next morning sun will fill this place

Find out something
Adapt yourself to the unknown place
Sing a crying song
Acid head, eat some more

Bare the ego, silence road
Run and round, it's going on
Hurry up
Darkness will wrap us up

Find out something
Adapt yourself to the unknown place
Sing a crying song
Drink happily everyday

Go ahead furthermore
Fascinated by the smell of the seasons
Sing a crying song
