Violently more violently break through The current of chaotic times you can see it anytime, anywhere, forever
Mow down the trees on the ground where more oxygen is needed Breathe, yes, it's indispensable because you were born here in this world

The life with lies, if you finish your empty life
A candle light, stand up to them until the light go out Almost choked, I can't stand the system Got punished and taken freedom away by force, it's intolerable

While I do this and that, too late to do anything about it
While I say this and that, the time is coming Say nothing, see nothing, hear nothing
Don't cry it off

Dogs of the government skim the money and go on the loose
They sell crude stuff, then punish or get punished, frauds and fakes Mean mobs were removed like burdocks and kept under control
You don't know the beauty of the real face, put make-ups with poison

Woman, no woman, no cry, just solid green Lost dreams and stick to business, it's frigidity You're on your period, I can shoot inside O.K. lucky let's get down Permanent waves make whirlings among the people in the dark

While I do this and that too late to do anything about it
While I say this and that the time is coming
Say nothing, see nothing, hear nothing
Just cry it off, soap bubbles

Outrageous matters, not serious matters, there are many different matters

Those who say it doesn't matter shamelessly give them a crown bop
Though we thought it's impossible to make a perfect thing, it was made up instantly Expose your instinct until you throw up what's inside, call up atoms

If you win the game, even if it's just by chance, everything will go better Even when you break through from one to nine, you can't find the freedom Today, sold at a flat rate, a bargain sale it's a good trend
"Open reach" let's go that way from now on kokushimusou

While I do this and that too late to do anything about it
While I say this and that the time is coming
Say nothing, see nothing, hear nothing
Don't cry it off

Indiscreet belief still continues, maddening noise never stops Indiscrimination still continues today, the war still continues Soap bubbles flew, flew over the roof Flew over the roof then burst and disappeared
