I'm sick of being no one to everyone
A broken heart dies from bleed in this life
Here I will dwell, here I'm alone again

What's the point to be someone that you can't see?
Blood drop are dripping red from the ceiling

Sunsets on me (it will grow on you)
Purpose discarded (Discarded)

Knife in fist, slash your wrist
Empty the veins of pain
A broken heart dies from bleed in this life
Here I will dwell, here I'm alone again

What's the point to be someone that you can't see?
Feels like I'm drowning inside myself

Sunsets on me (it will grow on you)
Purpose discarded (Discarded)

Now I know I've gone too far
Too late to heal this scar
Can't resist breaking down
Lower me into the ground

What's the point to be someone that you can't see?
Blood drop are dripping red from the ceiling

Sunsets on me (it will grow on you)
Purpose discarded (Discarded)
