"Adventuring with the familiar characters strenghtens the positive brand image and the customer relation. Adequate script which defines the nature of all the characters and their interaction and you have a captivating business."

Fear is the path to the Dark side
Fear is the path to the Dark side
(I wanna be your Jedi Knight)

Y'all answer the Empire's call loyal like Darth Maul then fall out, stall out like an amphetamine user
'cos a beggar can't be a chooser,
'cos youse a loser, like an Indiana Hoosier facin' charges of being a wife abuser, wife beater, wife batterer, wife bruiser straight pathetic like an Imperial cruiser goin' against two Rebel Alliance X-wing fighters I got the touch of Midas, y'all go ahead and dig out your lighters and wave 'em fuckers around like excitors callin' all you graffiti writers, rap reciters, I call on the Force to guide us as a team like Kobe, I'm hiphop's last hope like Obi-Wan Kenobi

Fear is the path to the Dark side
Fear is the path to the Dark side
(I wanna be your Jedi Knight)
Fear leads to anger, anger leads to hate, hate leads to suffering (and ask Yoda)
Fear leads to anger, anger leads to hate, hate leads
to suffering

I go: "Do not underestimate the power of the Dark side!", just like James Earl Jones, I got the skellies in the closet they'll be rattlin' their bones like Emperor Palpatine he's got the transsubstantiation with the bread and the wine whine, heavy, mechanized breathing like Darth Vader it's like you made a sound 'even the tiniest-it's see you later!

he'll decapitate your head with a lightsaber but when it comes to sentences capital punishment is better than life - with hard labour

Ask your neighbour, he'll tell you that a...

Fear is the path to the Dark side
(I wanna be your Jedi Knight)
Fear is the path to the Dark side
(I wanna be your Jedi Knight)
Fear is the path to the Dark side
(I wanna be your Jedi Knight)

Play Sabacc, my deck is set, my dice is loaded my rhyme is often scrambled, encrypted and coded like R2D2 or Morse, I'm showin' no remorse unmovable like a statue of a war hero mounted on a horse I play the Force like a game of polo still lookin' for my Princess Leia like Han Solo I happen to know the mayor to the Cloud City Mr. Calrissian, Lando backstabbin' KC like Evan Dando my rhymes is fat like motherfuckin' Marlon Brando I possess magic like Orlando, I hunt heads for props and not for bounty like Boba Fett it's six in the morning I'm not sober yet!
you weak, a-triflin', straight feeble no talent whatsoever like Sy Snootles with the band of Max Rebo entertaining the scum of the universe and Jabba you know it shows, you into crystal meth 'cos you blabber and talk and talk faster, and even faster, you lose all your power like the blasters on the Millennium Falcon at the crucial moment, you was supposed to jump into hyperspace keep snortin' that shit and they'll diagnose you as a diaper case

Fear is the path to the Dark side
Fear is the path to the Dark side
(I wanna be your Jedi Knight)
Fear leads to anger, anger leads to hate, hate leads
to suffering (and ask Yoda)
Fear leads to anger, anger leads to hate, hate leads
to suffering

And the cash deposit goes "chi-ching!" for George Lucas you a pimp and the Star Wars movies are your hookers and prostitution pays off as a movie theatre after another turns into a bordello you sit back, count your money and mellow you're the only one who knows who's on first like Abbott and Costello

And that's the Ultimate, that's the Ultimate, that's the Ultimate Jedi Mindtrick

Keep spendin' 'em dollars!
Keep consuming!
Keep buyin' that shit!
Keep buyin' that Star Wars memorabilia!
Keep spendin' 'em dollars!

Do not underestimate the power of George Lucas!
