"Flash"

All want to be going flash
Shocking the world hastily
All want to be going flash
Shocking the world hastily
Walk on the moon, dive in the ocean
Exploration from the South to the North
Digging the blocked, jump to the fire
All will be done for the revolution

Now everything will going explode, blasting away
When we try to go to fix it, maybe it's too late

Fly like a bird, sliding in the smelt ice
Across the world from the West to the East
Broken the mirror, catch the snowball
All will be done for the insurrection
All want to be going flash, and will be going flash
Shocking the world like a full emotion
All want to be going flash, and will be going flash
Shocking the world like a full emotion

Now everything will going explode, blasting away
When we try to go to fix it, maybe it's too late
Now everything will going explode, blasting away
When we try to go to fix it, maybe it's too late

Walk on the moon, dive in the ocean
Exploration from the South to the North
Digging the blocked, jump to the fire
All will be done for the revolution
All want to be going flash, and will be going flash
Shocking the world like a full emotion
All want to be going flash, and will be going flash
Shocking the world like a full emotion

Now everything will going explode, blasting away
When we try to go to fix it, maybe it's too late
Now everything will going explode, blasting away
When we try to go to fix it, maybe it's too late
When we try to go to fix it, maybe it's too late
Maybe it's too late
Maybe it's too late
