A flapping wings on the top blue skies
Just forgettin your ambitions
And let's we watching the universe
Is realize incoherents

We watching out the universe
Is realizes incoherents

Enter the stormed a firmaments
Accompany me the blacken heart
And then we watching world's warning out
Is it today seems powerless

Lets we watching the world's warning out
Is it today seems powerless

Absolutely I'd never know misunderstanding meaning all of things
It's been caused by many burdens and sliver tires inside my minds
A space where I trapped by thousand asks that rarely haunted & frightin me
I askin to you, I askin to you
Hey, what's happen, the world has been cried?

Perhaps the days after tomorrow
All our dreams will comin true
We wish a peaceful happen to the world
Let's hurried up making one hope

Wishing a peaceful happen to the world
Oooh let's making one hope
