This locked door
Is pushed open
That shining lights the side of you
We may share
Pulling hands
I feel I'm long beside myself
That music
No mistake
I'm far away to start to making me conscience
Don't wanna be here throwing stones
Don't wanna run, I'm walking on
Don't wanna be the only one
Don't wanna be the only one
This business
As cold as Descisions
Pouring out the mouth
I'm holding
All my sense
I can't believe that somethings already out there
Don't wanna be here throwing stones
Don't wanna run, I'm walking on
Don't wanna be the only one
Don't wanna be the only one
I'm feeling like a puppet jumping up and down falling on the floor now
So cut the strings off me
I'm feeling nothing like you show, I'm running for the door
It's hard to be that kind
Don't wanna be here throwing stones
Don't wanna run, I'm walking on
Don't wanna be the only one
Don't wanna be the only one...
