Text: Kim Sanders

Music: Peter GrÃfÃber, Nino Tielman, Kim Sanders

I use to believe in something I thought it was me and you that we could fulfill a lifetime and live as lovers do

I was wrong

Chorus:

I'll pay no mind
I'm leaving it all behind
I won't ask you what you feel no more
I won't ask you what you feel no more
I'll just pay no mind
I'm letting it go this time
'cause I realize I've come so far if I start to wonder where you are I'll just pay no mind
the first couple steps were fragile till I got on my feet felt I was walking sideways looking for my release lovers come and they go when they leave you'll never know
instead of a review tell you what I'll do

Chorus

I'm still writing love songs
'bout something that's passed me by I know that I'm stronger you think that's a lie
but you're wrong

Chorus
