Text: Kim Sanders

Music: Peter GrÃfÃber, Nino Tielman, Kim Sanders

I'll take the high road if you ask too of buy a pretty house with a naked view of the lakeside where we're all alone where we can make a life of our very own you'll be my lifetime hero I'll be the girl of your dreams I'll sew our lives at the seams cause I know that

Chorus:

you belong right here next to me you belong right here endlessly I won't ever let you down you won't shed a tear cause you belong right here, right here with me I can serve you breakfast on the shore you can kiss me there like you did before so many lifetimes long ago we rest assured cause we truly know that you are my lifetime hero and I am the girl of your dreams and we'll sew our lives at the seams cause I know that

Chorus
