Watch your mouth because your speech is slurred enough

That you just might swallow your tongue
I'm sure you would want to give up the ghost
With just a little more poise then that

Or was it God who chokes in these situations?
Running late? Oh, no, he called in
Or was it God who chokes in these situations?
Running late? Oh no, he called in

The hospices, a relaxing weekend getaway
Where you're a cut above all the rest
Sick and sad patients on first name basis
With all the top physicians

Prescribed pills to offset the shakes, to offset the pills
You know you should take it a day at a time

That's when you stutter something profound
To the support on the line
And with the way you've been talking
Every word gets you a step closer to Hell

That's when you stutter something profound
To the support on the line
And with the way you've been talking
Every word gets you a step closer to Hell

Prescribed pills to offset the shakes, to offset the pills
You know you should take it a day at a time
Prescribed pills to offset the shakes, to offset the pills
You know you should take it a day at a time

I am alone in this bed, house and head
She never fixes this, but at least she
I am alone in this bedroom
She never fixes this but at least she
