Withering time
So elusive, so shapeless
Graceful coil
Crumbling glory
It will revive
Exalt the endless chain
Exalt the withering times

Time decides what lives or dies
Time can crawl, time can fly
It can wither and erase
It can make a new beginning
There's nothing time can't beat
There is nothing time will need
To destroy and bloom again
A vicious circle older than the earth

Decay, destroy to reform again
Withering time

(choir)

Broken windows, blistering paint
Lashing winds, hot suns and rain wood has splintered, walls are cracked
The elements are just vicious
All what men have made won't last
In the future as in the past
But our memories are strong
And we'll outlive all circles of time

Time, transcend beyond all life,
Transcend beyond

On! Until the end of time, on and on

Live! Before we waste our time, before we run out

Broken, blistering, lashing, splintering, cracking, crawling, flying, withering time

(Choir)
