Our heads look down cause we're in such a mess now its not too late to change your way of thinking did u forget that we are slowing sinking? set your alarm there is still time for us to wake up
this is not the end
wake up (wake up)
though this is something concerning but I still think that there is time to
wake up
this is not the end
wake up (wake up)
though this is something concerning if you open up your eyes you'll see when I wake up with this uneasy feelin its not too late to change the way your thinking you've been _____ accepting everything they kiss set your alarm its not too late for us to wake up this is not the end

wake up (wake up)
there is time to
wake up
this is not the end
wake up (wake up)

come on wake up there is still time for us to
there is still time for us to repeat(4x)
wake up this is not the end wake up (wake up) though this is something concerning but I still think that there is time to wake up this is not the end
if you open up your eyes you'll see...
