I hear you're trying to keep up, keep up with me.
Rumor is you still have feelings for me.
I just roll eyes but inside I say, 'could this be the day?'
You tell me you love me and want to be, the one I want,
the one I need my everything.
Always right beside me you comfort me.
Times get hard I'll know you'll be my everything.
I see you stare when I walk by its hard to miss.
I cant keep it a secret gotta let it slip.
You tell me you love me and want to be, the one I want,
the one need my everything.
Always right beside me you come fot me.
Times get hard I'll know you'll be my everything.
Its hard to let you go and know it was the right thing to do.
yah yah yah
I still wonder to this day if it wasn't this way.
yah yah
Would you tell me you love me and want to be, the one
I want, the one I need my everything.
Always right beside me you comfort me when times get hard I'll know you'll be..
Always righ beside me you comfort when times get hard I'll know you'll be my everything.
yah yah yah oh oh oh oh
