Colour Blind

I.

Feeling Blue

Well I'm trying to forget the feeling that I miss you.

Feeling green

When the jealousy sweels and it would go away and dreams

Feeling yellow

I'm confused inside a little

Hazy but mellow

Bridge:

When I feel your eyes on me,

Feeling fine, its sublime

When that smile of yours
creeps into my mind.

Chorus:

Nobody told me it feels so good

Nobody said you would be so beautiful

Your the light

Your the light

When I close my eyes

I'm colour blind.

Feeling red

When you spend all your time with your friends and not me instead

Feeling black

When I think about all of the things that I feel I lack

Feeling jaded

When its not gone right

All the colours are faded. (bridge) (Chorus)
