Hit or miss, Fuck or fight,
It's time to live your life,
Go ahead, I know I'm right,
I'm gonna lay it on the line,
Put yourself in my shoes,
Line em up, knock em down,
I'm not running scared tonight,
(Chorus:\
I have climed these walls before,
And I'm not scared anymore,
There's a time to lead,
And a time to follow,
Because I won't take this anymore (these walls)
I've found these walls before (these walls)
There's a time to lead and to follow (these walls),

I see the walls closing in,
I feel like I'm in danger,
My enymy is not alone,
In a mirror there's a stranger,
As I tried to break out,
My panic led to fear,
Hopeless, I'm alone,
I'm afraid the end is near,
The truth dosen't always have to hurt

(Chorus)

Stop Looking,
Start Seeing Now,
Right Now

The truth dosen't always have to hurt,

(Chorus)
