I was scatterbrained, when I found the time to find
That times are evil, sick and disjointed
My skin is thick, thick and calloused
I'm ready to shed the shell, ready to shed the shell

So you think you have figured me out
A young man lost in his problems
Some problems aren't that easy to solve
You can't break our code of energy

I'm bent out of shape, there is no happy ending
I've come to a point, where I just don't give a fuck
My skin is thick, thick and calloused
I'm ready to shed the shell, ready to shed the shell

Go, you gonna change
(Ready to shed the shell)
Go, you gonna change
(Ready to shed the shell)
Go, you gonna change
(Ready to shed the shell)
Go, you gonna change

So you think you have figured me out
A young man lost in his problems
Some problems aren't that easy to solve
You can't break our code of energy

Code of
Code of energy
Code of energy, change
Code of energy, change

Hi, I'm paranoid
Goodbye, I'm in the void
Haunted by insecurity
Bipolar asymmetry

So you think you have figured me out
A young man lost in his problems
Some problems aren't that easy to solve
You can't break our code of energy

So you think you have figured me out
A young man lost in his problems
Some problems aren't that easy to solve
You can't break our code of energy

Hi, I'm paranoid
