I devise my own demise
I devise my own demise
I devise my own demise
I devise my own demise

I can't control everything
And I can't forget just what I've seen
And these memories take me away
To a better place than I am today

I devise my own demise
And tonight, the life I'm losing
I devise my own demise
And tonight, the life I'm losing

It is time to say hello goodbye
To fade away, fade away alone
I just want you to take, take me back home

To a better then place then I've ever known

I devise my own demise
And tonight, the life I'm losing
I devise my own demise
And tonight, the life I'm losing

I can't control everything
And I can't forget just what I've seen
These memories take me away
To a better place than I am today

I devise my own demise
And tonight, the life I'm losing
I devise my own demise
And tonight, the life I'm losing

This life I'm losing
This life I'm losing
This life I'm losing
This life I'm losing
I devise my own demise
