If you feel that your world is coming down around you Would you feel that this world is looking down upon you?

The only way you drop it in, you change, you kinda wanna

And if you won't, then you'll definitely think you coulda

And it's okay if you break down and break through I'll be here if you need me to remind you
You're not the first and you're not the last
It only gets worst if you're living in the past

Open your eyes and you will see
'Cause I still believe sometimes you gotta lose everything
To find out that you've always been running blind
Gotta keep your head up with the world 'round low

Sometimes you gotta leave everything
To find out what you'd do while I leave behind
You gotta keep your head up
When the world won't let up

So when you feel like everybody's out to get you
L-O-V-E and something will protect you And when the dust settles in you'll have your breakthroughs
And you are til ER roll the fate

It will set you free, everybody like me Just reach for the skies when you'll rise and you'll see
You're not the first and you're not the last
It only gets worst if you're living in the past

'Cause I still believe sometimes you gotta lose
everything
To find out that you've always been running blind
You gotta keep your head up
When the world won't let up

Sometimes you gotta leave everything
To find out what you'd do while I leave behind
You gotta keep your head up
When the world won't let up

Hey hey even though it hurts like hell we have to bleed Hey hey even when we fight for air we keep on breathing
Hey hey even if you lost yourself you still have me
Hey hey even if you hurt yourself but have no reason

I still believe it..
I still believe it..
I still believe it..
I still believe it..

Sometimes you gotta lose everything
To find out that you've always been running blind
You gotta keep your head up
When the world won't let up

Sometimes you gotta leave everything
To find out what you'd do while I leave behind
You gotta keep your head up
When the world won't let up

You gotta keep your head up
'Cause the world won't let up
Keep your head up
You gotta keep you

You gotta keep your head up
'Cause the world won't let up
Keep your head up
You gotta your head up
Because the world won't let up
