You gotta want it
You gotta want it
You gotta want it
You gotta want it

Don't sit there while you waste away
Tied up in what you're not
I watched you slowly fade away
Laid out and left to rot

Wake up now
You're getting closer
The time is now
To start it over
Take back your heart
Take back your pride
Kick out the demon that's living inside

You gotta want it
You gotta want it
Because nothing happens if you're sitting on your ass
And if you're bleeding
You will believe it
You're busy dying if you're living in the past

Whoa, you gotta want it
Whoa, you gotta want it
Whoa, you gotta want it
Whoa, you gotta want it

I hear you beg for sympathy
It always sounds the same
You play your self loathing symphony
There's no one left to blame

Shut up now
Start it over
Live out loud
You got it going
Take back your heart
Take back your pride

Digging out the stranger that's buried inside

You gotta want it
You gotta want it
Because nothing happens if you're sitting on your ass
And if you're bleeding
You will believe it
You're busy dying if you're living in the past

Whoa, you gotta want it
Whoa, you gotta want it
Whoa, you gotta want it
Whoa, you gotta want it

I feel you
You see I'm broken all the way through
But if you could see you like I do
You got this
You find your way out
Nothing with last
Everything changes
Watch it pass

Nothing happens when you're sitting on your ass
You're busy dying if you're living in the past

You gotta want it
You gotta want it
Because nothing happens if you're sitting on your ass
And if you're bleeding
You will believe it
You're busy dying if you're living in the past

You gotta want it
You gotta want it
You gotta want it
You gotta want it
You gotta want it
You gotta want it
You gotta want it
You gotta want it

Whoa, you gotta want it

You gotta want it
You gotta want it
You gotta want it
You gotta want it
