I've found this this she's drawn me in
I know I've seen everything, wanna meet you.
Stay here I dont like goodbyes
Addicted to your Spanish eyes it's a feeling

I've seen the way the others seem
But you talk like your from a dream, it's the real thing
Taken to a new world, and I've found myself waiting
I feel you could want me too
Or I've seen thing to see me through
In the papers, your there in your glory
So tell me yous story too.

Take out the money and the fame
And agree to change your last name
I still love you the same
Cos I've found my own Lois Lane
I always knew they'd be an end
I need to know if you intend on leaving return to your hero, (untranscribable) to the old times

Take the time to look around
Take in all the sights and sounds it's pleasing and I've needed to tell you
That it's all about something new

Take out the money and the fame
And agree to change your last name
I still love you the same
Cos I've found my own Lois Lane

I knew it could never be reality
Then you leave for someone I could never be
I don't hold you to blame
Cos I've found my own Lois Lane
