I sit alone with my thoughts and try to capture the essence and knowledge itself
I look for something solid so a bottle wont help
And I dont wanna bother nobody else so I'm alone again
Feeling like a part of me is gone with my friends
So I pretend that I'm dead but it makes no difference,
The only way to clear my head is in these weights I'm lifting
I feel my fake shifting out of my head
The way I used to be so proud now its clear, I dont understand Things aint what they used to be
I notice pain really aint new to me
I'm living life n' bang so foolishly!
So lord lead me, give me the strength
I know that you allready given me sense and I appreciate it
It's all so wet now when recreated, but whats the science?
I know it aint much by hey I'm tryin Feelin so fucked and I aint lying, there's darkness in me
and everyday it's getting harder to breath..

(See one day)
See we survive but it never ends
(We're gonna find our way)
And catch a vibe feelin' heaven sent
(And then a place to stay)
See I've been livin just dealin' with what I'm given Thinkin this is really somethin when it isn't
(If I may)
Just fly 'em by
(And let me find my way)
And it's why they might
(And there aint nothin I can say)
My window, why we live this way?

I swear to god I never fracture my honesty
So they ask what the fuck's wrong with me

But see the way I act how I'm gonna be
And normally I wouldn't bother with nothing at all
But now I'm in the rain feelin' part of the water that falls
And every fuckin breath I take, I realize I know that lifes full of lessons
You can never be safe, so I'm lyin here wide-awake tryin' to find a place
While I'm planning my escape I recline into this state
So I need me a place I can chill and take it easy Breathe freely, hear the swell, smellin seaweed
With trees and the leaves, that we ought to be given
But for now I'm just lost in the rythm

(See one day)
See we survive but it never ends
(We're gonna find our way)
And catch a vibe feelin' heaven sent
(And then a place to stay)
See I've been livin just dealin' with what I've been given Thinkin this is really somethin when it isn't
(If I may)
Just fly 'em by
(And let me find my way)
And it's why they might
(And there aint nothin I can say)
My window, why we live this way?

Sometimes I wonder what it's all for Coz when it rains it pours
And I don't wanna play these games anymore
See, I just wanna be assured it was worth it And maybe just for one day, I get it right and life will be perfect
Coz I don't know where I'm going but I know where I've been
And I can feel the wind blowing holding on with my friends
Coz in the end it's in them and in my family I trust,
That makes me proud, goddamnit it's us!

I know I'm blessed, every part of me
Chest, neck and arteries Like moses when he parted the sea (someone's watching)
Life aint what it started out to be,
I've come to realize that it's all up to me
So I'm running down my options Waiting opportunities, give my man a helping hand of jewelry
Trying to understand and join the lunacy
Coz soon as people see and tune in to the frequency

They realize what humans do to humans deep in secrecy
They might just see there aint much hope left to go around
Things aint getting better and the globebank's slowing down
But knowing what we know now, we ought to know better
But since we gotta go, let's go together.
