tell me a poem

could be the last time you stand beside me could be the first time you see it through now matter what comes I won't ask you to write me there's only one thing I'll ask from you refrain

Tell me a poem write a love song just for me
I will miss you no longer
Tell me a story let me be the key
I will be I will be free

And so you are leaving love and happiness behind Just turn around and say good-bye
What have I done for you to change your mind Just turn around and I won't cry whatever happens don't try to be true
I let you go if only you

Refrain

Wherever I go I just cant take this blues away Cant get these words out of my head
The only cure for me is when you softly say These words again I won't be sad

Refrain

Tell me a romance write a fairy tale for me
I will miss you no longer
Show me your heaven and baby you will see
I will be I will be free
I will be I will be free
