Girl, I noticed
Every little thing you say
Makes me nervous
But I'm not hopeless
I'm really trying to tone it down
But it keeps coming back

I noticed
Every little thing you do
Makes me nervous
But I'm not hopeless
Baby won't you give me a sign?
Am I on the right track?

But I really didn't wanna come across as a lonely man
When I told you that I loved you on our first date
But I really didn't wanna come across as a lonely man
When I told you that I loved you on our first date

But I really don't wanna go home
And I can't get you out of my sight
'Caus your looks and your body
Got me feeling kind of dizzy
So I know we ain't down tonight

Now it's a little past three o'clock
I wanna throw cobbles at your bedroom window
Wish I could change your mind
But I don't know how

Now it's a little past four o'clock
And I'm sinking in this man-made limbo
Looking down at my watch
Wasting time

Girl, I noticed
Every little thing you say
Makes me nervous
But I'm not hopeless
I'm really trying to tone it down
But it keeps coming back

I noticed
Every little thing you do
Makes me nervous
But I'm not hopeless
Baby won't you give me a sign?
Am I on the right track?

But I really didn't wanna come across as a lonely man
When I told you that I loved you on our first date
But I really didn't wanna come across as a lonely man
When I told you that I loved you on our first date

But I really don't wanna go home
And I can't get you out of my sight
Got me feeling kind of dizzy
So I know we ain't down tonight

I, I guess I must've been too shy
I've been in bed to kiss your lips goodbye
Now I'm left here wondering why, why, why, why?

Girl, I noticed
Makes me nervous
But I'm not hopeless
I'm really trying to tone it down

I noticed
Makes me nervous
But I'm not hopeless
Baby won't you give me a sign?
Am I on the right track?
