So in this life we'll never miss out on all the nights we felt alive
in this life we'll never miss out so sing it now we drove for miles back home, to relive what we've known it always feels like snow, i'd never change it.

in this life, I thought i'd never love right prove me wrong
but this time, I think I got the feeling right

felt alive
in this life we'll never miss out so sing it sing it now in this life we'll never miss out on all the nights we felt alive
so sing it sing it now as I fall into this coma there are constant thoughts of you and its at this very moment that I realized what we've been through

in this life, I thought i'd never love right
prove me wrong

felt alive
in this life we'll never miss out so sing it sing it now
so sing it sing it now

we drove from coast to coast in about 3 days you know I miss you most when it starts to rain I tried to change my mind but I still feel the same

I looked into your eyes as you start to cry I know there's no right time so I say goodbye

felt alive
we felt alive

felt alive
in this life we'll never miss out so sing it sing it now
