I've been writing these lines down and I can't remember feeling more let down, feeling for a reason and if you're trying to get into my head it's the best mistake that you ever made

So rip my voice out 'cause all that it can do is let you down,
Without doubt.

I'm screaming for you to listen to me, but you wont so you can't and there's nothing I can do now I wonder how our lives will change when your a memory i'm broken down but better free to start over, to start over.

And oh i've tried to justify each line as it gets harder and harder to breath I've sacrificed too many years of my life for you to take it away from me so rip my voice out cuz all that it can do is let you down, Without doubt.

i'm screaming for you to listening to me, but you wont,
so you can't and there's nothing I can do now
I wonder how our lives will change when your a memory

you know I warned you
i'm only bad news
you know I warned you to leave me here
you know I warned you
i'm only bad news
you know I warned you to leave me here
you know I warned you
i'm only bad news
you know I warned you to leave me here
you know I warned you
i'm only bad news

I wonder how our lives will change when your a memory
