Surrender to the night
Under a moon so bright
We drift away from life
And we can not aflee
We danced and waited too long
For our fall to come
The yearning for a mystery
Just living for the ecstasy
We fall from darkened skies tonight
Its the dream of the end
The dark side of our days
And what angels have sent
A great illusion nowadays
We feel the thunder storm
The pain of heavens thorn
Loves lost in darkened skies
Scars of passion
Helpless cries
