"My Sweetest Return"

This is the very end now
So hard to believe
This is my last chance now
The escape from it all
So many people
They're staring at me
They watch out into the sea
To the dead enemy
That was my sweetest return
But now it's over
The murderer still at my side
Yes, they're watching at me
A struggle from man to man
Just to get ladies sympathy
But it's ending in the sea
Im getting closer
Closer to my dreams
Now Im lying in the sea
As the ugliest enemy
I surrender to the sea
My love will be so far away
Im falling deeper and deeper
That has to be my sweetest return
