"Last Hope"

I don't even know myself in all
I thought I would be happy by now
But the more tried to push it
I realize
Gotta let go of control
Gotta let it happen(4x)

It's just a spark
But it's enough
To keep me going
And when it's dark
I'll no ones around
It's keeps going

Every night I draw my best dream
Tomorrow makes it better
And wake up to the cold reality
None of things is change
But it will happen
Gotta let it happen(3x)

It's just a spark
But it's enough
To keep me going
And when it's dark
I'll no ones around
It's keeps going(2x)

And the salt in my wounds isn't burning anymore then it used to.
It's not that I don't feel the pain,
It's just I'm not afraid of hurting anymore.
And the blood in these veins isn't pumping any less than it ever has.
And that's the hope I'll have,
the only thing I know that's keeping me alive.
Alive.

Gotta let happen

It's just a spark

But it's enough
To keep me going
So if I let go of control now, I can be strong.
And when it's dark
I'll no ones around
It's keeps going

It's just a spark
But it's enough
To keep me going
So if I keep my eyes close with the blinded hope
And when it's dark
I'll no ones around
It keeps going
