We've got to keep this wheel turning
It's all that we've got.

How the hell did we end up here?
Keep on moving. moving. moving on.
Don't look around,
Just keep on running,
We are losing. losing. losing it all.

In the end you'll be left:
Head in hands and dressed like dead,
But if you want to give in
You better give it all,
Because we don't want to know it.
We don't want to hear about it.

Oh, what beautiful times are these?
Take a closer look. we'll take a closer look!
And whatever may come,
Let me tell you
We're not finished yet. we're just not finished yet!
