Verse:

When do you stop,
When somethings going right for you?
How can you follow,
When you're the only one that left?
Where does my journey end,
When I've been walking through wind and rain?

Chorus:

There are so many Questions,
That no one can answer,
So many reasons why I care,
So many Questions,
That no one can answer,
Nobody tells you that no one cares

Verse 2:

Who do you listen to,
When people tell you this or that?
Why do bad things happen,
And good things go to waste?
Why do the good die young,
And killers live eternally?
