Just look at this mess that I'm in
For a gentle lover, you're a terrible friend
I swore I'd never get this close again
But I can't seem to stop myself from falling

You wanna come see me tonight
I gotta be strong, I know it's not right
I gotta hold on, put up some kind of fight
But I'm naming the time and the place again

(Chorus)
'Cause I just can't say no to you
Though I know I'd be better off to
But my heart won't admit that it's true
And I just can't say no to you

I guess I never understood
That something so wrong could seem so good
Would I give it up even if I could Come call and let me fall with you

Chorus

Tell me when will it end
Break it off and then we're back again
Thank you for using Top40db.com.
