Ive given this some thought
And it kills me to sit back and watch
I was there the day you said
Im leaving Ive had enough
Sit right back and listen up
I can understand that your somewhat scared
So tell me now have you opened up
I need to know
I haven't yet seen the previews
So I don't know what Im getting into
But if all else fails like a long lost tale it's true
Then take me down but don't leave me out
Your time is going to come around
Before you hear a sound
So don't let go
Can anybody hear me now
Has it been so bad
Have I let you down
Did it make you mad
I hope you see it now
You think that it's too late
But good things come to those who wait
I can see it in your face
Your reading an empty page
Sit right back and listen up
I can understand that you somewhat scared
So tell me now have you had enough
Your not alone
Ive never been one to give in
Sign me up for lessons once again
